Jan will also talk about area attractions that you will want to visit while you're visiting the Finger Lakes. ❖ "Expanding the Appeal of Other Early 20th Century Hand-Colored Photography" - Led by Scott Jones, Sharon Lacasse & Diane Thompson-Naylor Our Wallace Nutting club expands to new frontiers, by discussing hand tinted photography from east to west; come prepared to discuss your favorite photographers and their contemporaries. ❖ "Ways to Better Promote our Club & Online Presence" - Round Table Talk led by Tieler Niedzwiecki, Jim Eckert & Mike Ivankovich We welcome all suggestions in this discussion!
Afternoon: Lots of choices (see more below)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Lunch and touring at the Corning Museum of Glass ❖ Taking in the area's other museums; shopping Corning's historic Market Street; traveling the Finger Lake's wine trails; enjoying lake activities; viewing local waterfalls; and so much more!
Evening: Dinner @ 5:00 PM	If staying over on Friday night, meet for an informal meal at Sorge's, an Italian/American restaurant, and less than a mile from the Radisson on Market Street.

Within walking distance to the hotel are many restaurants and shops, including the Corning Museum of Glass (<https://home.cmog.org/>) and the Rockwell Museum of Western Art (<https://rockwellmuseum.org/>).

Tour the nearby Wineries of the Finger Lakes (<https://www.fingerlakeswinecountry.com/wine-food/wine-trails/>). Of special interest too are Montour Falls, Aunt Sarah's Falls, and Watkins Glen Gorge State Park (<https://nyfalls.com/waterfalls/watkins-glen/>).

Watkins Glen and Seneca Lake (<https://www.fingerlakes.org/explore/lakes/seneca>) are approximately 30 minutes from Corning.

You can stand in the same spots that Wallace Nutting stood to take pictures that are shown in New York Beautiful and were also marketed as hand-colored photographs. Locate where Charles Sawyer took quite a few popular photos in this area including pictures in Watkins Glen, Seneca Lake, Cayuga Lake, and Ithaca just to name a few. W. J. Harris had an office in nearby Penn Yan, NY on Keuka Lake, and did many real photo postcards and hand-colored photographs of the Finger Lakes Region.
